Upstate NY — The small agency doing big things with great clients isn't so small anymore!

29 Design Studio welcomes Madison Bracaglia as a Junior Art Director. Madison is a graduate of the College at Brockport with a concentration in Graphic Design. She graduated cum laude, on the Dean's List.

"I'm really excited to be working with Maureen. I feel there's so much I can learn from her and I love her modern and unique designs, like the work she did for 9 to 5 Project. I've always focused on creating content and now I get to learn about the business and strategic side of design and branding."

Maureen Ballatori, principal and founder of 29 Design Studio, speaks confidently about her eager and highly creative employee and mentee. "We've chosen someone who not only has strong technical and design skills, but someone who loves Upstate New York as much as we do. Who values community and is open to dynamic growth."

Madison joins Maureen and 29 Design Studio's Digital Marketing Maven, Jennifer Gyuricska as well as a talented team of skilled professionals that the studio proudly partners with to create purpose and growth for 29 Design Studio's clients.

In addition to expanding the team, 29 Design Studio has also added a new Rochester, NY, office in the Made on State building in Rochester's historic High Falls district. Ballatori explains, "Growth into Rochester was the next logical step for us. We have been expanding our client base here and we like the proximity. We look forward to being even more involved in this vibrant community."

For more information on this growing agency, please contact Jennifer at 506-999-0926.
